Lewis S. Mills High School Harwinton — Burlington Connecticut

Everything has its season,

Everything has its time,

Show me a reason — I'll show you a rhyme.

Cats on the window sill,

Children in the snow,

Rivers belong where they can ramble,

Eagles belong where they can fly,

Got to find my corner of the sky.

Too many men settle for daydreams too small,

But I won't rest until I know I have it all.

Thunderclouds have lightning,

Nightingales have songs,

All I want is for my life to be something more than long.

IN APPRECIATION

RAYMOND T. DEMEO

Lewis S. Mills High School and the Class of 1985 will always remember Mr. Raymond DeMeo. Throughout his 24 years at Mills, he was a prominent figure in the Industrial Arts Department and served as the first chairman. He was also president of the teachers' organization and advisor to various I.A. clubs, as well as being responsible for many students acquiring their drivers' licenses. Mr. DeMeo will always be remembered for his sincere concern for his students, his keen sense of humor, and his gentle kindness

DEDICATION

LOUIS J. CELOZZI

We, the Class of 1985, proudly dedicate the Sceptre Yearbook to Mr Louis Celozzi. Foreign language students will always remember the countless French, Spanish, and Latin classes through which he successfully and triumphantly kept them alert. As advisor to the Lewis S Mills Student Council, he has provided guidance and leadership for many school accomplishments. He has been a major force behind the American Field Service Chapter at Mills. But most of all, we shall remember him for his generosity and understanding. Mr. Celozzi, the Class of 1985 wishes you a happy and healthy future

Sincerely, The Class of 1985

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

To the Class of 1985

It seems like on a brief weeks have passed a five you enthis astically writted down Senior Hall on your way to the cafeteria homeroom on the opening day of school

Nine months have gone quickly, and hopefully they have been enjoyable and productive for you as you have re-ched your goal of high school graduation.

It is an exciting time of year not only for you and your classinates but a so for the faculty who have worked with you and watched you succeed in the many endeavors you have undertaken in the past tour years. It is a time of excitement because of the new experiences that he ahead for you, and it is a so a time of reflection as you remember your experiences in the Region # 0 schools. Turge you to take time to thank a teacher secretary dustodian nurse and a cafe or a employee for the positive influence they have had in your saccess at Lewis Mills. The most important part of any school is the people who occupy it, including yourselves. We are proud of you and the staff.

We be leve we have offered you a quality education and that you are well prepared for conego the natitary services or your particular choice of career

We welcome your suggestions on ways to improve our school community and hope that you we visit or write is no matter how far you are from the towns of Burlington and Harwinton

I have been particular is appreciative of the responsibility attitude, and leadership you have displayed during your senior year. I fee, most fortunate to have been your principal during this year. You have been a credit to your fair, y school, and community during the past four years.

Please a low me to be among the first to congraturate you engraduating from Lewis S. Malis High School and wish you success, happiness, and good health in the years ahead.

The Class of 1985 and the Sceptre Yearbook Staff would like to thank all of the companies and individuals who have graciously shown their support to the Class, the Yearbook, and Lewis Mills through their advertisements and sponsorships. We feel very fortunate to have so many friends and supporters. It is our hope that everyone reading our book will remember to support our friends as they have us.

Thank you all.
